Home for Sale in the Pinery Subdivision (Parker, Colorado).

This Kitchen! Owners have spared no expense in their stunning kitchen renovation. Complete with open floor plan and multiple entertaining spaces, you'll love the extended alder cabinets, granite countertops, travertine tile backsplash, chef-worthy brand name stainless appliances including 4 burner gas range with griddle + custom hood vent, double ovens/microwave, farm sink, built in wine rack and extra large breakfast bar. Beautiful wood flooring graces the first floor with open concept kitchen, dining, and living and flows into the sunken family room with beautiful stone wood burning fireplace and rustic wood beams, giving that mountain modern charm we all love.

Oversized Master Suite with additional sitting area/office space with updated bath that offers a large soaking tub, European walk in shower, dual vanities, private water closet and the biggest master closet you have ever seen with en-suite laundry! Generous secondary bedrooms and updated full bath round out the 2nd floor.

Multigenerational Living possibilities in the finished walkout basement providing a great space for guests or in-laws with a bright living space, large bedroom, full bath, second laundry area, and room to build out a kitchen or bar. Perfectly positioned on this lot, both patios are walk-out, making it desirable for separate living and entertaining spaces.

Private cul-de-sac lot with fenced yard that offers a large stamped concrete patio with solar lights and built in propane firebowl (stays), a second private patio off of the basement, garden boxes, and plenty of room to roam and play.
