January 28th, 2017 Nation Fun at Work Day

Date When Celebrated: Always January 28

Fun at Work Day is a day to have fun at work, which we at Osgood Team do. Ideally, work should be fun. But normally, work is not intended to have fun, It's intended to get work done. We have the unique experience of having fun doing what we do! We interact with amazing people, while showing and looking at beautiful properties all over gorgeous Colorado!

Unfortunately, not everyone is lucky enough to have a job that's fun to do. If that's you, then today is a day just for you! Think of ways to make your job more fun and exciting.

We like having fun with you but would love to have you bring us new friends! We are never to busy for your referrals!
