

Let Us Help You Raise Money for Your Non-Profit

Are you looking for an easy and fun way to raise money for your child's school or sports team?

I've got the answer. Show a movie in neighborhood or at your school at no cost to you.

I've joined forces with DC Farmers Insurance's Sam Smith (www.dcfarmersagent.com) in an effort to give back to the community. We are offering free movies and our state-of-the-art, movie-theater equipment to local non-profit organizations, school groups, HOAs and neighborhoods. It's as easy as promoting the event and then charging an entrance fee, selling some concessions and maybe a T-shirt or two. Suddenly you've got a successful and fun fund-raising event on your hands.

Sam and I think this is a different and unique way for us to give back to the community where we live and work. We hope you like the idea and take us up on our offer to show a movie in your neighborhood in the near future. We can set up in a neighborhood park while the weather is nice or we can set up at an indoor event when the weather gets colder.
