SMDRA held its fifth annual Diamond Circle Awards celebration on Friday, April 28, 2017 at the Hyatt Regency Denver Tech Center.

In order to become One Carat – Partnership Members of the Diamond Circle Club, two REALTORS must have produced between $5- $11,999,999 million in volume, or completed between 30-39 transactions.

“We are pleased to present Robert and Leanne with the Diamond Circle Award for 2016,” said Lynn Snyder Goetz, 2017 Chair of SMDRA. “They have demonstrated a sincere dedication to the real estate business, old-fashioned hard work, and superior customer service to achieve success regardless of market conditions. A real estate agent is a Realtor when he or she is a member of the local, state, and National Association of Realtors, NAR, The Voice for Real Estate and the world’s largest professional association. The term “Realtor” is a registered collective membership mark that identifies a real estate professional who is a member of the NAR and subscribes to its strict Code of Ethics and they hold themselves to a higher standard of business from other licensed agents in the real estate industry. Only real estate licensees who are members of the Realtor Association are properly called Realtors.

Master of Ceremonies for the Diamond Circle Awards was Sam Adams, local comedian, public speaker, and master of Ceremonies. He is an award winning sports journalist, and his work has been featured in The Denver Post, the Rocky Mountain News, and Colorado AvidGolfer Magazine. He has also appeared on ESPN, Fox Sports, CBS, and the NFL Network.

This year's Diamond Sponsor, the highest and most prestigious opportunity at the awards celebration, was Wells Fargo Home Mortgage. The night also featured a Silent Auction with items donated by SMDRA members and local businesses, with proceeds going to benefit Rebuilding Together Metro Denver.
